

100 pounds of rice and beans will be given to the poor in your honor.

For the poor of the Caribbean and Latin America who can't feed their children, rice and beans are a lifesaving staple. A gift has been given to Food For The Poor in your name to provide rice and beans to families who are struggling for survival.