

A home with a latrine will be given to a destitute family in your honor.

In the Caribbean and Latin America, the poor often live in shacks made of scraps of metal, plastic or even cardboard, with dirt floors that turn into mud when it rains. A gift has been given to Food For The Poor in your honor to provide a family with a safe, new home complete with a latrine.