

A child will be fed for a year in your honor.

For the poor of the Caribbean and Latin America who can't feed their children, rice and beans are a lifesaving staple. A gift has been given to Food For The Poor in your name to provide rice and beans to families who are struggling for survival.