

An impoverished family will receive a goat in your honor.

For poor families in the Caribbean and Latin America, a goat is a great gift. Goats are inexpensive to maintain and provide a family with nutritious milk and cheese, which are important sources of protein and can be sold to provide a supplemental income. A gift has been given to Food For The Poor in your name to provide a family with a goat.