

An outboard engine for a fishing village will be given in your honor.

Many impoverished fishermen in Jamaica and Haiti are unable to provide for their families. All they need is the equipment for deep-sea fishing to help their families and surrounding community. A gift has been given in your name to provide an outboard engine for a fishing village.