

A trumpet will be given to a school band in your honor.

*L*earning to play an instrument can have a lasting impact on a child. The dedication and discipline required to learn an instrument are skills that help students excel in academics and daily life as well. A gift given to Food For The Poor in your name will provide a trumpet for a needy school band.

To: _____ From: _____