

*A donkey has been given in your honor to
a family in need.*

A donkey is a tremendous asset for poor families in the Caribbean and Latin America. Donkeys help carry items to and from the market, enabling families to better support themselves. A gift has been given to Food For The Poor in your name to provide a destitute family with a donkey.