

A village will have a well drilled and a water pump installed in your honor.

In some parts of the Caribbean and Latin America, clean, safe drinking water is difficult or impossible to obtain. Without a nearby source, women and children must walk for hours and carry heavy buckets to bring water to their families. A gift has been given to Food For The Poor in your name to drill a well and install a water pump for a village.