

A child will receive school supplies for a year in your honor.

*A*n education is critical to breaking the cycle of poverty. In the Caribbean and Latin America, school is not free. Parents must pay for uniforms, books and other school supplies. Sadly, many poor parents cannot afford these costs. A gift has been given to Food For The Poor in your name to pay for a child's school supplies for a year.