

A computer system has been provided to poor students in your honor.

Education is crucial to breaking the chains of poverty, and having access to a computer offers great advantages to impoverished students in the Caribbean and Latin America. A gift has been given to Food For The Poor in your name to provide a computer system that allows seven students to learn at once.