

The gift of musical instruments for destitute children has been given in your honor.

The gift of an instrument gives children the opportunity to develop musical talent and blesses them with skills that can last a lifetime. A gift has been given to Food For The Poor in your name to provide marching band instruments to poor children.