

A home with a latrine will be given to a destitute family in your honor.

*I*n the Caribbean and Latin America, the poor often live in shacks made of scraps of metal, plastic or even cardboard, with dirt floors that turn into mud when it rains. A gift has been given to Food For The Poor in your honor to provide a family with a safe, new home complete with a latrine.