TD Bank Launches “Coins for Caring” to Aid Victims of Haiti Earthquake

Cherry Hill, N.J., and Portland, Maine - January 18, 2010 – TD Bank, America's Most Convenient Bank®, announced today that in addition to TD's $100,000 donation last week, it is launching a collection in Florida to aid the victims of the devastation created by the earthquake in Haiti.

“With a natural disaster of this magnitude, the need for substantial financial aid is enormous,” said Tom te Riele, Market President, Florida. “Assisting people in need is an important part of TD Bank and we hope many people will join us in this effort to provide much needed assistance to the victims of the overwhelming catastrophe. Every little bit helps.”

For the next 30 days, TD Bank is encouraging people to directly donate or who have spare change to stop by any TD Bank in Florida nearest them to use the bank's free Penny Arcade coin counting machines and then donate, all or a portion of, the cash to the ‘Coins for Caring’ campaign. TD Bank will give the money to Food for the Poor to assist in disaster relief.

The free, self-service Penny Arcade coin counting machines are easy to use and conveniently located next to the teller counter at all TD Bank branches.
