Dear Friends in Christ,

Every day, I marvel at what miracles and blessings God delivers through your incredible generosity. It is only through God’s grace and your goodness that we are able to distribute desperately needed aid. In this Annual Report, you will see evidence of the tremendous good you have done. In 2014, you delivered food to the starving, housed those who lived in squalor, provided clean, fresh drinking water, and transformed the lives of the poor. We saw profound miracles happen in the lives of the poor—all made possible through your generosity and love. You are the cornerstone of all we do for the poor. Your compassion has made it possible for those still suffering in the Caribbean and Latin America to have hope for the future. I am truly thankful that you have chosen Food For The Poor to help make a difference in the lives of the poor, one child and one family at a time.

“Well done my good and faithful servant.” (Matthew 25:21a)

May God continue to bless you as you have blessed others, as we all work together to eliminate suffering and poverty. Thank you for all you have done, and for being a beacon in the darkness of poverty to reflect His mercy and goodness.

A servant of the poor,

Robin G. Mahfood

“The Lord had done great things for us; Oh, how happy we were!” (Psalm 126:3)
So whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.” (1 Corinthians 10:31)

In 2014, your compassion reached out to the hungry. You saved lives by providing food to the malnourished children who rely on our feeding center in Haiti for their daily bread. Because of your generosity, starving children in Nicaragua were fed. You were there, comforting an elderly grandmother in Jamaica by providing her food through Food For The Poor when she had nothing to eat.

Throughout the Caribbean and Latin America, your support is providing food for the truly destitute. At our feeding center in Port-au-Prince, your generous heart provides 15,000 meals to hungry families six days a week. You are there in spirit, loading the trucks with bags of nourishing rice and beans to deliver to our partners throughout Haiti.

Thanks to you, children in Guatemala, Honduras, Jamaica, Haiti, Nicaragua and Guyana receive the food their growing bodies desperately need through our school feeding programs. This nourishment allows their young minds to learn rather than being distracted by hunger. And getting an education can break the cycle of poverty.

Because Food For The Poor acquires food in large quantities, we were able to provide a family of four with food for a month for less than $15. These destitute families praise God for you. Thank you for all you did to feed hungry children and their families in 2014.

In 2014, thanks to you, more than 52 million pounds of food were distributed to feed malnourished children and their families. This included more than:

- 30.3 million pounds of rice
- 12.9 million pounds of beans
- More than 9.6 million pounds of canned and other assorted foods

Food For The Poor also supports hundreds of food-generating projects such as the ones listed on page 6 of this Annual Report.

“In 2014, your compassion reached out to the hungry. You saved lives by providing food to the malnourished children who rely on our feeding center in Haiti for their daily bread. Because of your generosity, starving children in Nicaragua were fed.”

"God is our refuge and our strength, an ever-present help in distress." (Psalm 46:2)

You can look back proudly on 2014 and know that you helped move desperately poor families into safe, secure homes. Food For The Poor houses have strong, locking doors, solid roofs and personal sanitation facilities. All of these components come together to make a safe home for vulnerable families and give them hope that their children will have brighter futures.

Children who once stayed awake at night in fear of storms or intruders can now sleep peacefully because of you. Little ones who once had nowhere to study quietly now have a place to focus on their homework.

It is because of your support that Food For The Poor is able to continue building safe, sturdy homes across the Caribbean and Latin America. Thank you for your compassion and generosity in 2014.

In 2014, you helped Food For The Poor build 7,367 housing units for families in desperate need of safe shelter. Since 1982, loving donors like you have constructed more than 98,000 housing units for the poor.

Housing Facts & Figures

"God is our refuge and our strength, an ever-present help in distress." (Psalm 46:2)
In 2014, you gave the poor the opportunity to lift themselves out of poverty. You transformed entire communities by providing income-generating initiatives and sustainable development projects. Thanks to you, poor families were able to break free from the cycle of generational poverty.

You gave fishermen in Honduras safe boats and equipment so they could better provide for their families.

You provided farmers in Jamaica with seeds and tools like tillers, so they can grow more food and become self-sufficient. Through animal husbandry projects in Haiti, you gave families goats, chickens and cows to create thriving farms.

In countless ways, you have shared Christ’s love with the poor. Whether you brought clean water to thirsty and weary people, supported housing projects for those living in shacks or huts, provided education for children, or offered skills training to adults desperate to earn an income, you have shown that you are selflessly devoted to ending poverty.

Thank you for helping our brothers and sisters in the Caribbean and Latin America develop a healthy and prosperous future.

“Give her a reward of her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates.” (Proverbs 31:31)

HEALING THE SICK

You saved lives in 2014. Your generous support delivered millions of dollars worth of lifesaving medicine, medical supplies and equipment to the poor of the Caribbean and Latin America. It was because of your loving compassion that innocent babies were given a good start in life through critically needed medical care. The lives of the poor and vulnerable were significantly transformed through lifesaving medicines that your generous gifts helped provide.

Serving together in 2014 meant that we could continue to bring a positive, healing presence to the poor who need us most. Food For The Poor solicits bulk donations of medical goods to keep costs low, and procures lifesaving medicines that are unavailable to the poor of the Caribbean and Latin America.

Thank you for helping to heal the sick and the suffering.

“When He disembarked and saw the vast crowd, His heart was moved with pity for them, and He cured their sick.”

(Matthew 14:14)
When faced with hunger and homelessness, children are the most vulnerable and the least likely to be able to survive without help. In 2014, you came to the rescue of orphaned or abandoned children through your loving support of our Angels Of Hope program. In the Angels Of Hope program, children who were once alone and scared are now part of an orphanage where they receive nutritious meals, tender care, clothing, medicine and an education. The orphanages we partner with are specially selected homes that help children grow and learn about God’s love and how to trust in Him throughout their lives.

Your support of the Angels Of Hope program gives children the assurance that they are loved and not forgotten.

“To You the helpless can entrust their cause; You are the defender of orphans.” (Psalm 10:14b)
TEACHING THE CHILDREN

Thanks to you, eager students were given the tools necessary to learn in 2014. Schools in the Caribbean and Latin America often lack enough desks, chairs, pencils, paper and books. But through your support, we were able to supply these schools with materials to teach growing children.

Thanks to you, the chains of poverty are continually loosened because poor children are able to attend school and learn. These innocent, hopeful children become students who thrive on the opportunity to learn about the world around them, and obtain the skills they need to gain employment. Because of your gifts for education, poor children are one step closer to gaining freedom from poverty and suffering.

“Teach us to count our days aright, that we may gain wisdom of heart.”

(Psalm 90:12)

EDUCATION FACTS & FIGURES

In 2014, you helped build, rebuild or contract to build 44 schools, and also helped ship 433 tractor-trailer loads of school furniture, books and supplies.

CARING PARTNERS

Food For The Poor partners with many organizations to deliver lifesaving aid to the poor of the Caribbean and Latin America. Community leaders, churches of various denominations, local charities and many more of our partners work together effectively to distribute these shipments to the poorest of our brothers and sisters.

Our partnerships are both domestic and foreign, allowing us to provide aid directly and efficiently. From caring for a sick child in a nutrition center to delivering food to the manhandled, our partners help us deliver blessings to the poor. They provide critically needed resources to families who have so little, and help provide long-term development projects to give families a source of income.

We are truly blessed to have so many caring partners who helped to provide essential aid in an efficient and economical manner. Thank you for everything you do to lift up those in poverty.

“Our hope for you is firm, for we know that as you share in the sufferings, you also share in the encouragement.”

(2 Corinthians 1:7)

We thank God for you, our loving Food For The Poor supporters and partners. Your tireless generosity and compassionate efforts brought hope and healing in the lives of the poor in 2014. Thank you!

Your loving gifts have had a tremendous impact on poor families and children across the Caribbean and Latin America. The impact you made last year was witnessed firsthand by those who traveled with Food For The Poor on mission trips. All of your hard work and sacrificial giving in 2014 is a sign of God’s work in your heart. Thank you for the goodness and blessings you bestowed on the poor.

For those who created a generous legacy through our Planned Giving program, Food For The Poor is honored and grateful. Gifts, bequests and trusts are invaluable sources of support, and make a tremendous difference in the lives of the poor. One act of love. One act of kindness. One child helped. One parent comforted. One life saved. Participants in the Operation Starfish and Champions For The Poor programs know that helping one person at a time is how together, we can change the world for the better. Thank you.

Churches, clergy and Christian organizations in the U.S., Caribbean and Latin America help to broaden efforts to reach as many people in need as we can. God’s transformative love is in you, and shines forth to help the poor. Whether you raised money for the poor, provided food for a starving child, gave to help deliver medicine to the sick, or helped in another compassionate way in 2014, Food For The Poor is grateful for you. We look forward to continuing to answer God’s call to help the poor alongside of you in 2015. May God bless you.

“Giving thanks always and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father.” (Ephesians 5:20)
VISION STATEMENT

Food For The Poor is God’s instrument to help the materially poor and to renew the poor in spirit.

Our ministry is a reflection of our Lord’s unconditional love — a love that surrenders all, that inspires trust and faith, and that embraces all people, regardless of race, status or creed.

It is also shaped by our belief that Christ is alive and can be served directly by serving those in greatest need. (Matthew 25:40)

For guidance and to maintain the purity of our mission, we stress the need for regular prayer.

Through surrender, service and prayer, we seek a closer union with our Lord.

MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to link the church of the First World with the church of the Third World in a manner that helps both the materially poor and the poor in spirit.

The materially poor are served by local churches, clergy and lay leaders who have been empowered and supplied with goods by Food For The Poor.

The poor in spirit are renewed by their relationship with and service to the poor through our direct ministry of teaching, encouragement and prayer.

Ultimately, we seek to bring both benefactors and recipients to a closer union with our Lord.
