Dear Friends in Christ,

I challenge you.

I challenge you to look through our 2015 Annual Report and not see the good we accomplished together on behalf of the poor this past year.

I challenge you to look at the numbers and not see the faces of the people you have helped through your generosity and kindness. Reflected in those smiling faces is the transformation you have made possible.

I challenge you to not see our endeavors as good stewards of every dollar donated to us, for we know that each donation represents the good faith entrusted to us to help the destitute. Through diligent cost-cutting measures throughout the organization, we achieved an efficient overhead ratio while still maintaining our Christ-centered mission to assist the poor.

I challenge you, as you read every fact and figure, to not understand that without people like you, none of this would be possible.

Lastly, I challenge you as we continue on the journey we embarked upon in 1983 with the founding of this organization, to not see that what matters most is the heart of our mission—caring for our brothers and sisters as we would for Christ.

I pray that God will continue to bless you for many years to come. Thank you for all you do for the poor.

A servant of the poor,

Robin G. Mahfood

“Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You...”
(Matthew 25:37b)

In 2015, your kind generosity helped to deliver lifesaving food to hungry children and families.

Your donations help us to quickly and efficiently provide food to nutritional centers, clinics, churches and feeding programs in desperately poor communities. Thanks to you, we are able to provide 15,000 meals per day, six days a week, to the hungry poor at our feeding programs in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. This is only one of the hundreds of feeding centers that our generous donors support in Haiti. Children and families trek miles in the sweltering heat to receive what may be their only meal of the day.

In Guatemala, where widespread poverty has led to an alarming amount of malnourishment, you are supporting feeding centers that keep the desperate poor alive.

Because of your generosity and sacrificial giving, starving children in Honduras and Nicaragua were fed. And in Jamaica, your support has helped to establish hundreds of food-generating projects, allowing the poor to sustain themselves.

You are the instrument God uses to save starving children throughout the Caribbean and Latin America.

You are an abundant blessing in the lives of the poor. Thank you for nourishing souls, alleviating suffering and feeding the hungry.

FEEDING FACTS & FIGURES

In 2015, thanks to you, more than 56.6 million pounds of food were distributed to feed malnourished children and their families. This included more than:

- 34.6 million pounds of rice
- 9.8 million pounds of beans
- More than 12.2 million pounds of canned and other assorted foods

Food For The Poor also supports hundreds of food-generating projects such as the ones listed on page 7 of this Annual Report.
You helped to answer fervent prayers for safe shelter in 2015.

Through your generosity, Food For The Poor was able to build sturdy homes for homeless and needy families throughout the Caribbean and Latin America.

You have given the poor who only knew sleepless nights an incredible gift. Thanks to you, poor families no longer sleep in shacks made of crude materials like rusted zinc, tarp, mud and sticks. Your generosity and love for the poor provided homes with a durable roof that protects children and families from heavy rains, and solid walls that keep the wind from blowing inside — all on a solid foundation.

The gift of safe housing is also a blessing for hope in the future. With doors that lock, mothers no longer worry about intruders entering and threatening the family. Children have a dry, quiet space to complete homework and focus on their studies.

Homes with sanitation save children and families from the terrible burden of having to use a field outside. Through you, God has provided refuge and relief from unimaginable suffering.

God bless you for helping to shelter our brothers and sisters in 2015.

“This, rather, is the fasting that I wish... sheltering the oppressed and the homeless...”

(Isaiah 58:6a, 7b)

HOUSING FACTS & FIGURES

In 2015, you helped Food For The Poor build 9,431 housing units for families in desperate need of safe shelter. Since 1982, loving donors like you have constructed more than 107,800 housing units for the poor.
“For I know well the plans I have in mind for you, says the Lord... plans to give you a future full of hope.”
(Jeremiah 29:11a, b)

In 2015, you empowered poor families and communities with the means to escape poverty.

Thanks to your generous support, fishermen in Honduras are now able to motor safely out to sea. These men can now bring back bountiful catches of fish for their families and community as part of Food For The Poor fishing village initiatives — which continue to thrive in Haiti and Jamaica as well.

You provided fruit-bearing trees for hungry families, and equipped farmers with the tools and training they need to grow more food.

Thanks to your support, schools in rural areas were provided solar-powered computer workstations. These vital learning tools helped to provide computer skills to schoolchildren.

Whether you provided clean water, supported housing projects that gave vulnerable families a safe home, or provided vocational training for adults to run their own small businesses, you have supported Christ’s call for each of us to help the poor.

“O Lord, my God, I cried out to You and You healed me.”
(Psalm 30:3)

You saved lives in 2015.

Your support of clinics, hospitals and nutritional centers delivered lifesaving treatment in 2015. God bless you for providing essential medicines, medical supplies and medical furniture, such as hospital beds, to help poverty-stricken children and families.

Your support of clinics, hospitals and nutritional centers offers affordable — and oftentimes free — treatment. You help the sick and suffering get back on their feet. Your compassion is like a warm hug; it embraces the poor with love and healing.

All too often, innocent children and families lose their lives to preventable or treatable diseases. Your support assures the poor receive the medical attention they need. You are a lifesaver.

Thank you for delivering hope and healing to the sick and suffering.

MEDICAL FACTS & FIGURES

Food For The Poor shipped 712 tractor-trailer loads of medicines and medical supplies in 2015.

COUNTC CIRCLEWISE: Suffering from malnutrition are cured back to health at nutritional centers throughout the Caribbean and Latin America. Food For The Poor provides medicines and supplies to those hospitals and clinics. Dr. Evardio examines 2-year-old Madelina at the Food For The Poor-sponsored Centro de Salud San José Pescalli clinic in rural Guatemala.
Teaching THE CHILDREN

You gave children from poor families the opportunity to receive an education in 2015.

Schoolchildren across the Caribbean and Latin America were able to crack open new textbooks, write on fresh paper with new pens and pencils and wear fresh uniforms to school. Because of you, they were able write at a desk and sit on a proper chair.

Children who were eager to learn became students enrolled in school — some for the first time — all because of you. We often hear from parents that the most important thing to them, aside from their children’s health, is their children’s education. Thanks to you and your Christ-like love, poor children are able to attend school and break free from the grips of crippling poverty.

EDUCATION FACTS & FIGURES

In 2015, you helped build, rebuild or contract to build 35 schools, and also helped ship 176 tractor-trailer loads of school furniture, books and supplies.

Caring PARTNERS

Food For The Poor relies on our many faithful partners to carry out God’s work of helping the poor.

We work closely with charities, churches of various denominations, community leaders and corporations to effectively deliver and distribute the lifesaving aid that is so urgently needed across the Caribbean and Latin America.

Our partners help us care for the poor in so many ways, from delivering food for malnourished children and babies, to ensuring that tractor-trailer loads of lifesaving aid are delivered and distributed quickly and efficiently where they are needed most.

The compassionate dedication of our partners helps us save lives. Thank you for your continued and loving support of our poorest brothers and sisters.

In Guatemala, 2-year-old Marcus happily holds up cans of Spam™, a nutrient-rich food supplement made by Hormel Foods that Food For The Poor distributes to children threatened by malnutrition.

“I give thanks to my God at every remembrance of you, praying always with joy in my every prayer for all of you, because of your partnership…”

(Philippians 1:3-5a)

“Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it.”

(Proverbs 22:6, ESV)

“Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to care for orphans...”

(James 1:27a)

In 2015, you shared God’s love with innocent orphaned or abandoned children.

Through our Angels Of Hope orphan sponsorship program, you provided life’s essentials to children in need.

Our Angels Of Hope sponsors generously provided nutritious food, medical care, an education and a warm bed to sleep in at night for children in our specially selected orphanages. Your continued generosity assures these precious little ones a future where they can grow up learning about the Lord and loving Him. Thank you for showing children in need that they are remembered and loved.

The children in our Angels Of Hope program have faced many difficulties in their young lives, but the love and support of caring sponsors helps them to develop and grow into healthy adults.

Caring for ANGELS

CLOCKWISE:

Kevin, 6, poses on playground equipment at a Food For The Poor supported orphanage in Guatemala. Two-year-old Jasmin was found barely surviving in a shack made of cardboard scraps in Honduras. Now 4, Jasmin loves playing princess and is thriving in an Angels Of Hope orphanage. This orphanage in Haiti was built and is supported by Food For The Poor donors.

“Give thanks to the Lord who is good, whose love endures forever!”
(Psalm 107:1)

Thanks to kind Food For The Poor donor, Francesca, 8, and her 4-year-old sister, Ishmael, dance with joy in their new home in Haiti. This new sturdy home keeps out the wind and the rain, and has solar panels to provide light inside the rooms at night.

We are forever grateful for you, our loving Food For The Poor supporters and partners.

Your endless kindness and generous compassion brought about real change for the poor in 2015. We thank God for you, and the positive impact you made for poor children and families across the Caribbean and Latin America in 2015. Thank you for sharing your blessings with the poor.

For those who created a generous endowment through our Legacy Giving program, we are grateful and honored you chose Food For The Poor. Gifts, bequests and trusts are tremendous sources of support, and have a lasting effect in the lives of the poor.

Those who participated in Operation Starfish and Champions For The Poor programs understand the importance of helping one person at a time and how that one person’s life can be forever changed for the better.

Thank you to all the churches, clergy and Christian organizations in the U.S., Caribbean and Latin America who supported our work to aid the poor. You are a shining example of how God’s transformative love can turn despair into hope.

No matter what you did to assist the poor in 2015, Food For The Poor is grateful for you. Our goals for 2016 include expanding our reach to provide more food for the hungry, shelter more deserving families, drill more wells, educate more children, and help more families become self-sufficient. May God bless you.

FOOD FOR THE POOR’S GOALS FOR 2016...

VISION STATEMENT

Food For The Poor is God’s instrument to help the materially poor and to renew the poor in spirit.

Our ministry is a reflection of our Lord’s unconditional love — a love that surrenders all, that inspires trust and faith, and that embraces all people, regardless of race, status or creed.

It is also shaped by our belief that Christ is alive and can be served directly by serving those in greatest need. (Matthew 25:40)

For guidance and to maintain the purity of our mission, we stress the need for regular prayer.

Through surrender, service and prayer, we seek a closer union with our Lord.

MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to link the church of the First World with the church of the Third World in a manner that helps both the materially poor and the poor in spirit.

The materially poor are served by local churches, clergy and lay leaders who have been empowered and supplied with goods by Food For The Poor.

The poor in spirit are renewed by their relationship with and service to the poor through our direct ministry of teaching, encouragement and prayer.

Ultimately, we seek to bring both benefactors and recipients to a closer union with our Lord.
